

AN INTERPRETATION OF HAND GESTURES AND EYE TO EYE CONTACT IN FACE TO FACE CONVERSATION AMONG TEENAGERS

Shaifali Rachna Puri

Abstract:

A very common way of communication among teenagers when they are communicating among themselves face to face is hand gestures. Most of the times, teenagers have the loudest of voices and highly entertaining matters for communication. Even then many a times it is seen that they communicate among themselves by using hand gestures. Privacy is a very important aspect of human life. It is so important that many of us cannot actually live without it. Teenagers while making an attempt to maintain their privacy create a different world. Thus, teenagers many a times find it difficult to imagine what can go wrong and what impact it can have on them.

Key Words: Teen agers, hand gestures, face to face conversation.

ABOUT AUTHOR

Author Dr Shaifali Rachna Puri has vast teaching and managerial experience. Her area of expertise is communication skills, English Hons, Elective English Functional English. She has worked as examiner and as question paper reviewer at Punjab Technical University, Jalandhar, Punjab, India. She has presented papers in various National and International Conferences.